Looking back
On three long years
The joys and fears
The bells that rang at eight a.m.
The students that always answered them.
"Good morning, please stand for the pledge"

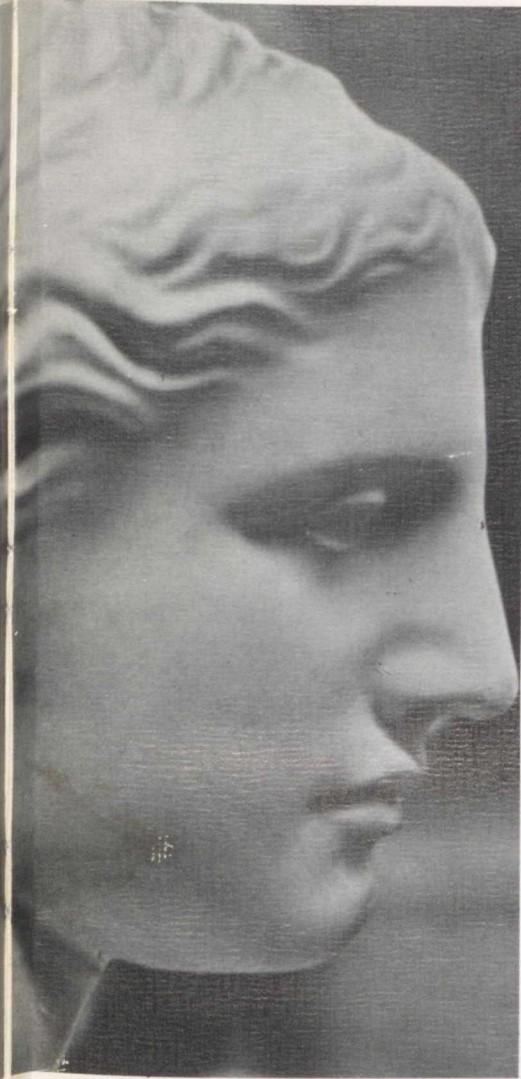

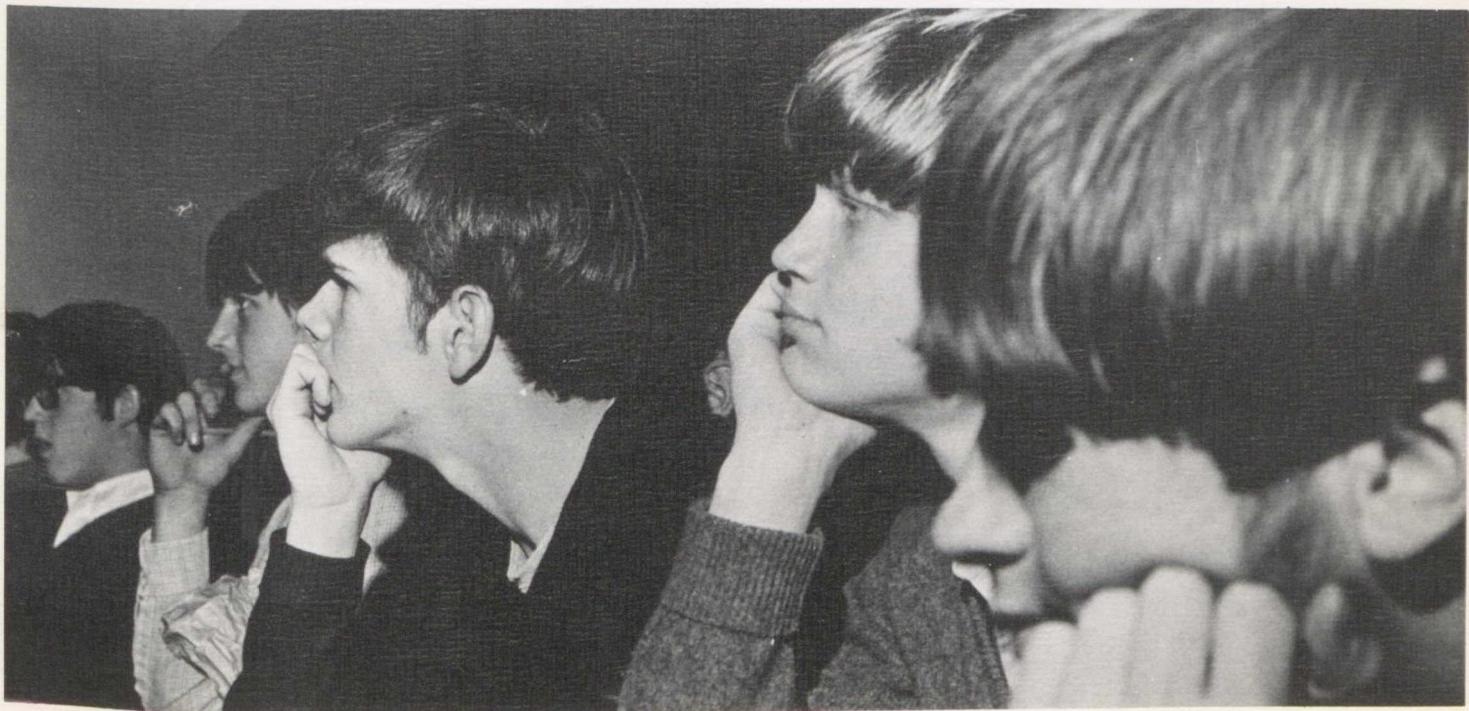

And each man knows his lines.
You wonder if he'll know them
When he's left this all behind.
And you laugh to think that maybe
He's developing his mind . . .

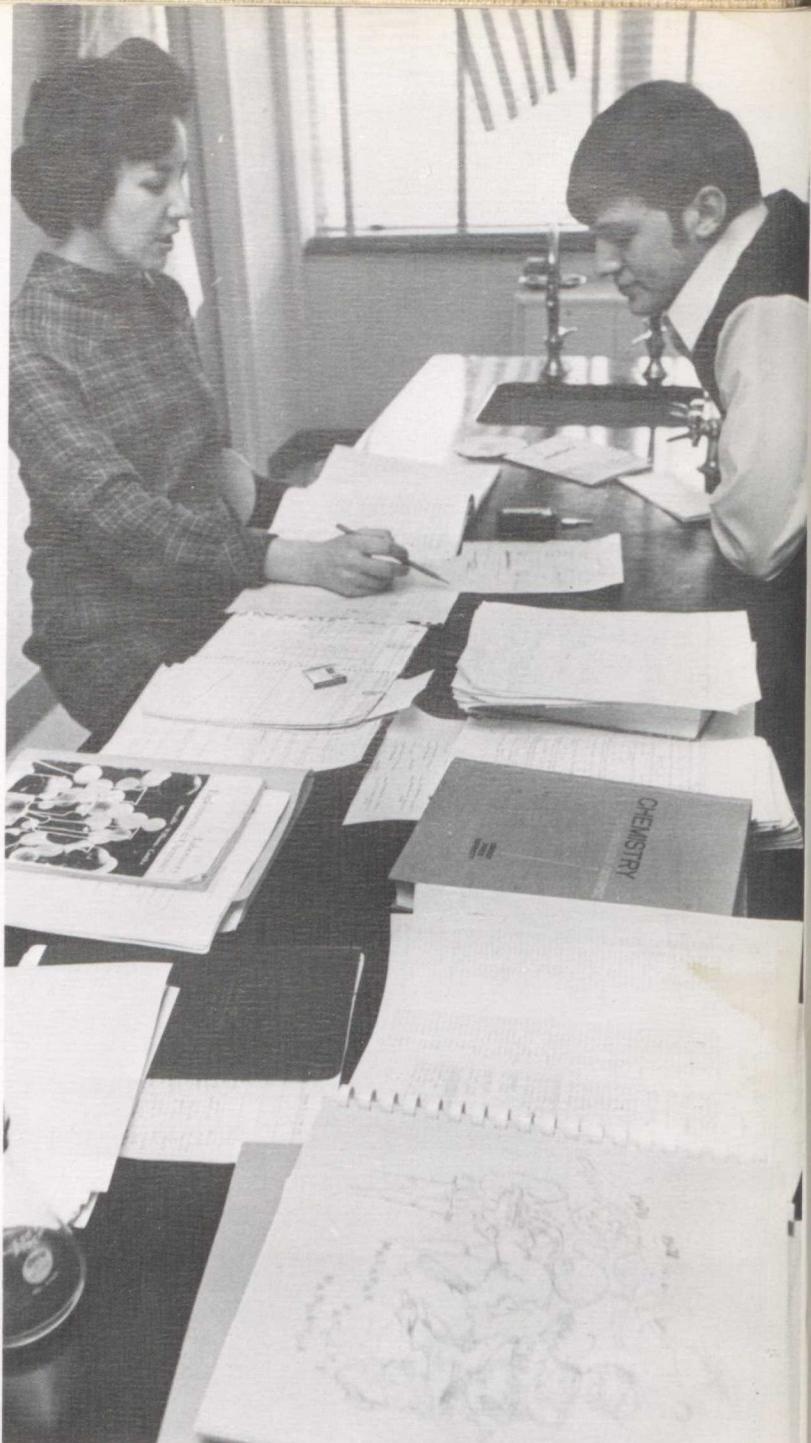

"Art club will meet at 2:45 in room 023 . . ."
In the three years I've been here
I've seen some brilliant art
Of worlds that are near to me
Of worlds far apart.
And I wonder if the memories
Will live on when I depart.

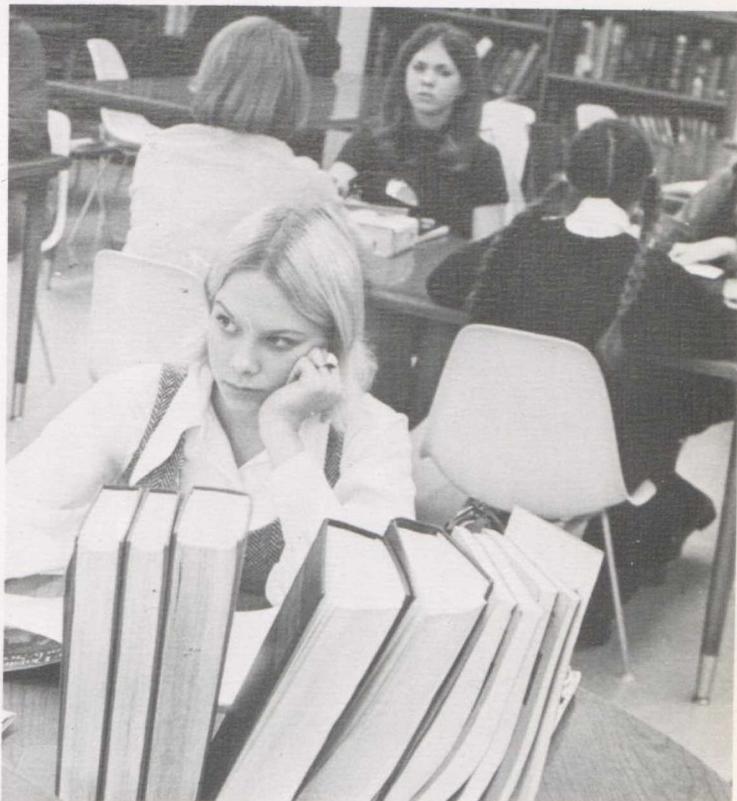

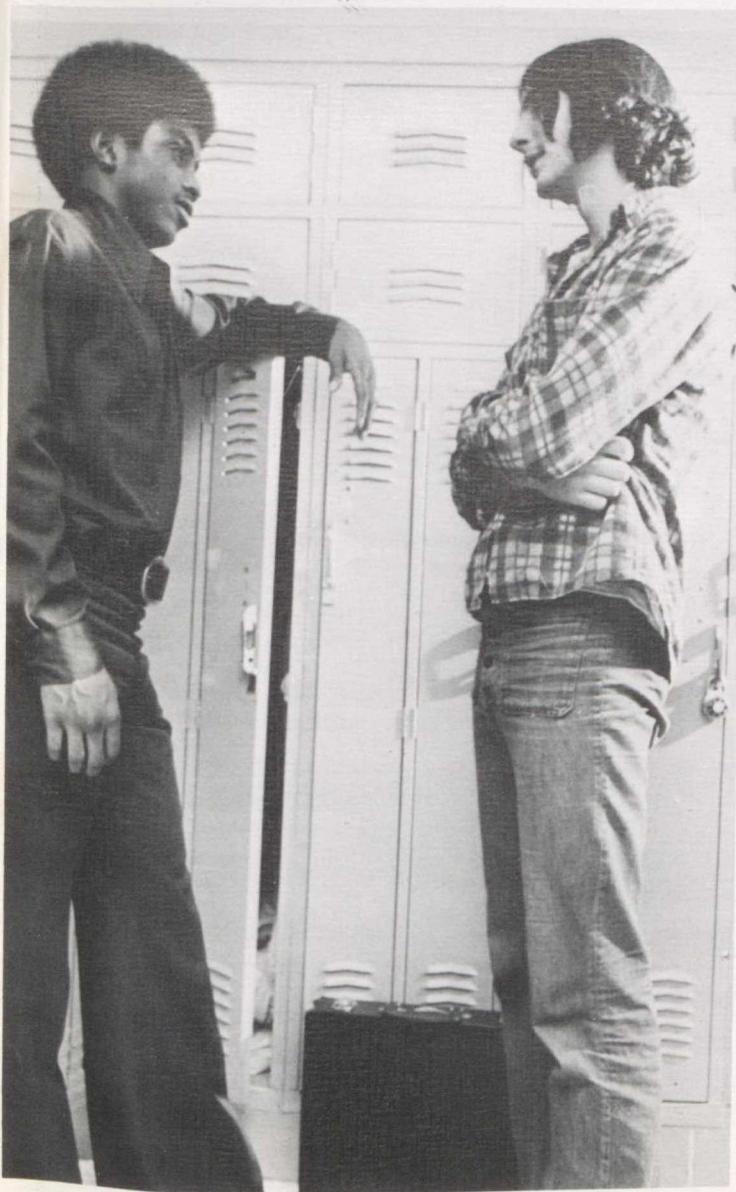

"Career Day will be held today second period . . ."

It's kind of funny asking
What we'll be when we are grown . . .

For there aren't too many people who can say,
Still the fear exists within us
That we just might be alone
Though we know there has to be another way . . .

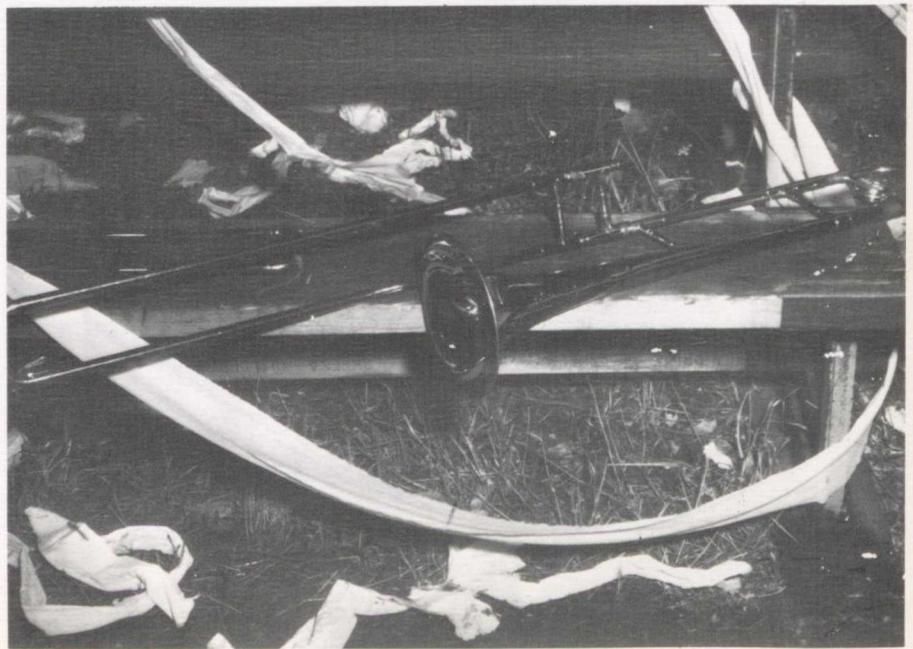

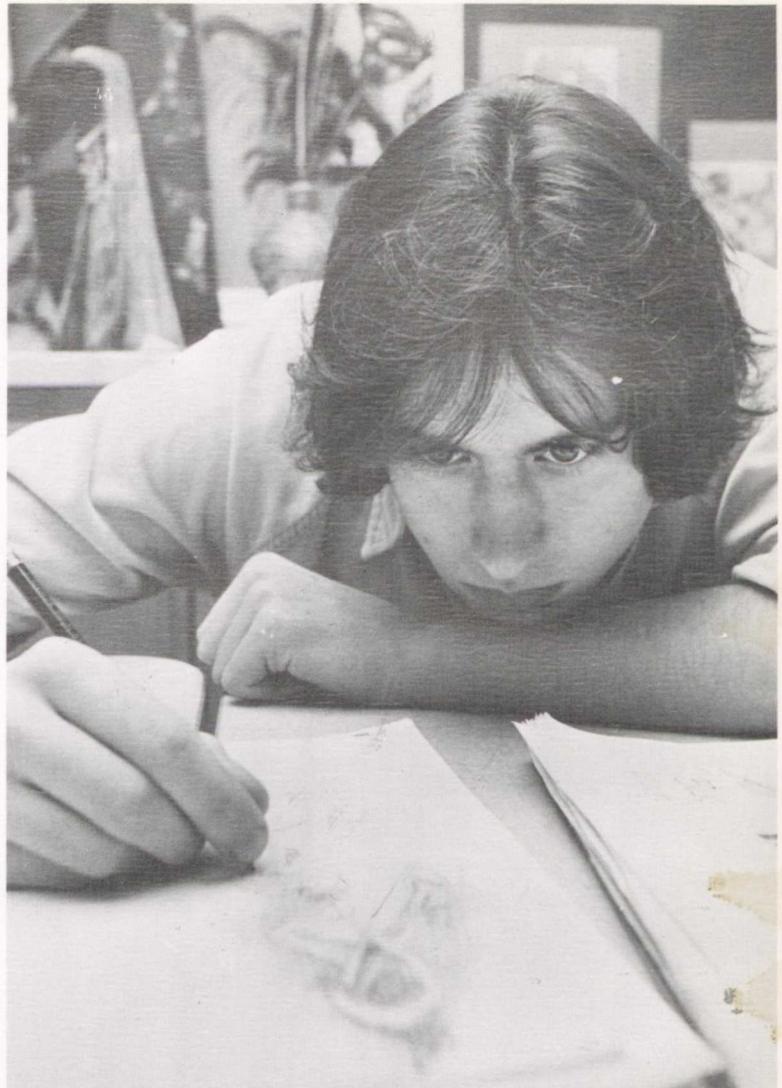

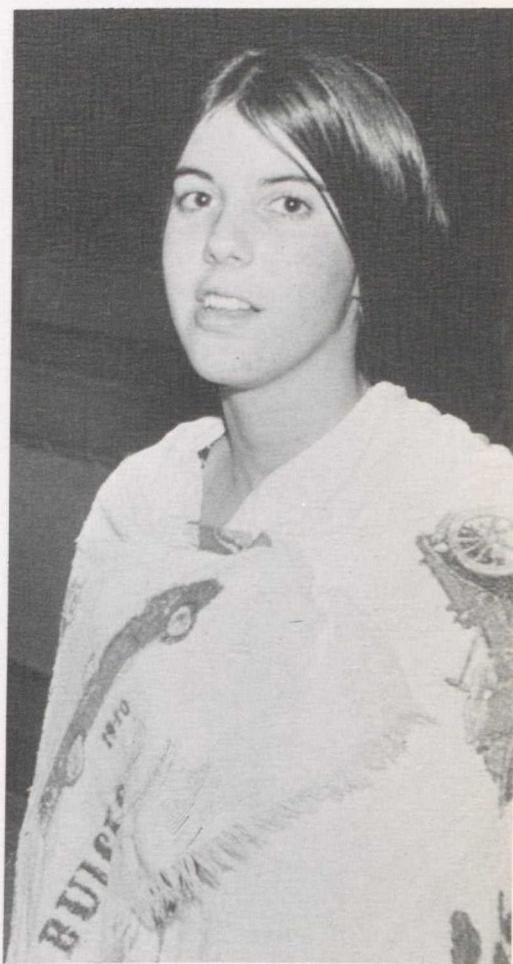

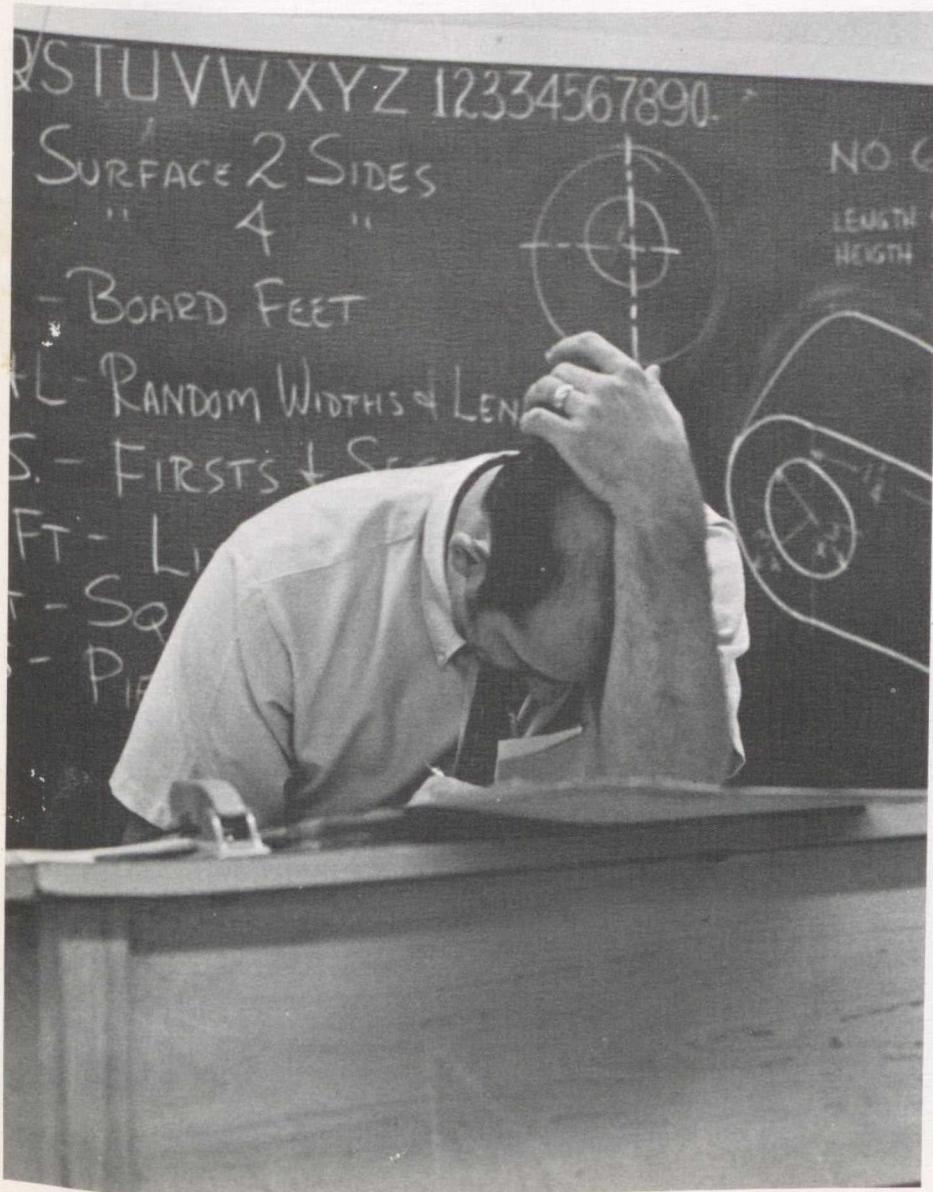

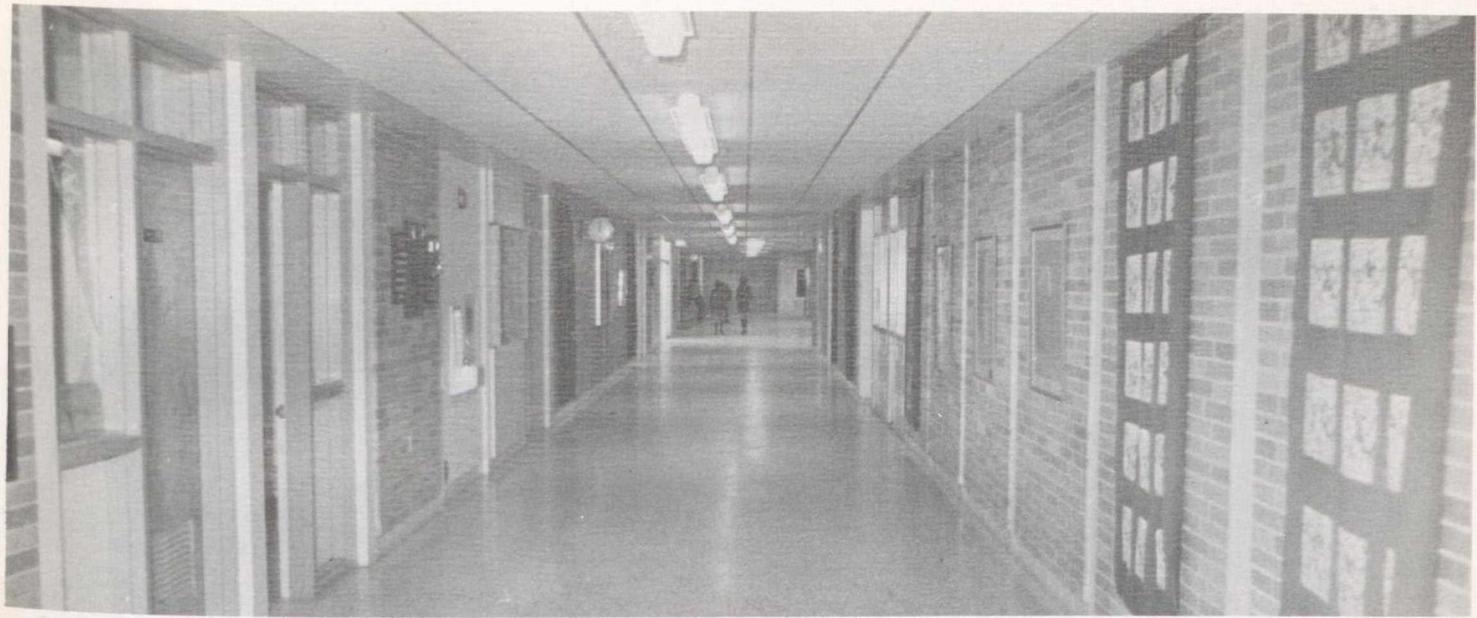

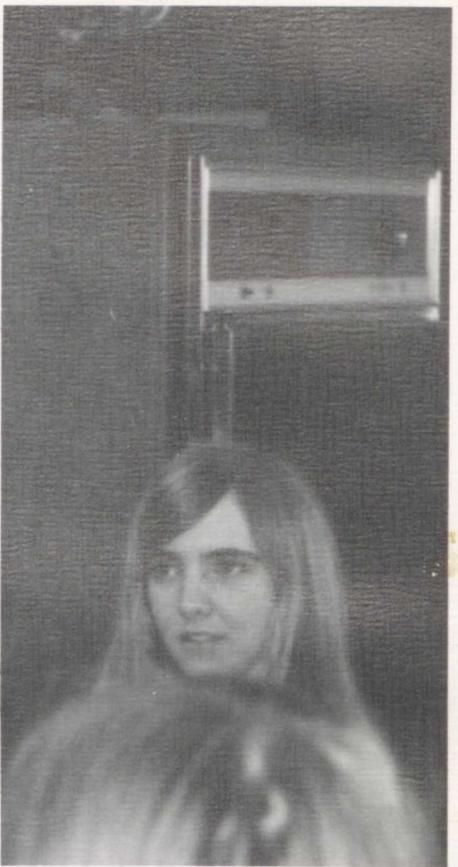

"There will be an open meeting of the Sophomore class after school today . . ."
I haven't much to say now
To the class of seventy-three
I hope this place is good to you
It wasn't bad to me.

"There will be an open meeting
of the Senior class at 7:45 . . ."

We've had many questions answered here.
I ask one now as we leave:
In the three years we've been going here
What have we achieved?

SENIORS

As we reflect . . . 1968 was a beginning of new responsibilities, of mazes of halls, of competition, of lost lockers, but most important . . . of new experiences. We were weary, yet eager to explore . . . the vocational, business, and the academic opportunities.

We became united when sharing . . . felt pride for a friend's achievement . . . shared disappointment for a goal unattained.

These memories become most vivid to us as the time approaches to leave them. In these three years all of us have grown . . . for experience, negative or positive, is learning.

Executive Committee

Student Council

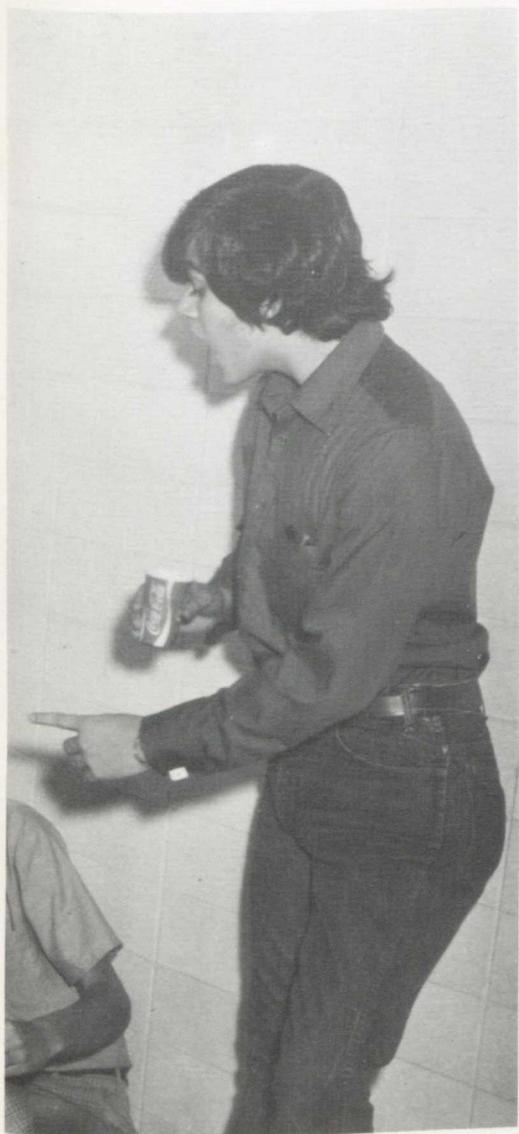

Student Council had a year of innovation and success, often hard to achieve. The balance on hand increased; apathy declined. Homecoming . . . a mirror of reflections.

Who was behind this change inspired by Election '70? Four leaders. Searching, finding, and understanding the core of student life was their goal.

The help that Miss Kauf gave was greatly appreciated.

J. Fulk, Sec.; T. Schmidt, V. Pres.; D. Brody, Pres.; S. Moffatt, Treas.

Senior Class

Seniors, looked up to as the oldest, are the veterans, the biggest, and the Voice of Experience. Leaders in everything, they are second to none. They have an awareness of the now and eager anticipation of what comes next. Seniors, so spirited, so proud, are so much a part of what makes Malabar special.

Executive Committee

Junior Class

Juniors, so vital and alive, are experienced — yet eager to learn. Juniors — keepers of the spirit — make the school vibrantly alive by their achievements, aspirations, and antics. Juniors, they who are almost there, await with expectation and eagerness the beginning of their year of seniorities.

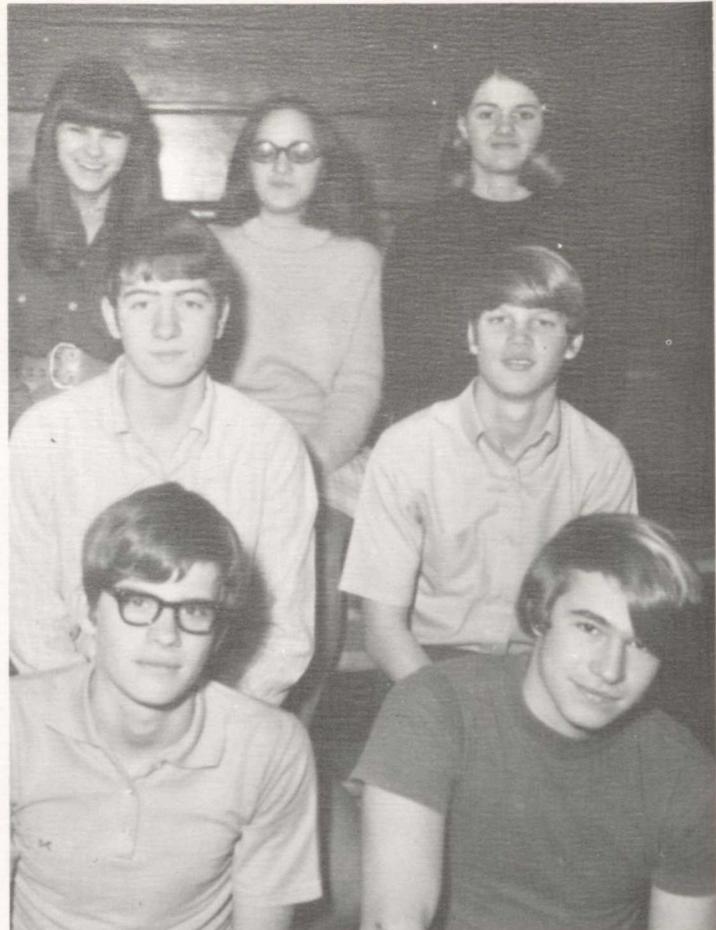

B. Ellison, Treas.; P. Beat, Sec.; L. Smith, V. Pres.; D. Cho, Pres.

Sophomore Class

Sophomores, for whom it is yet to be, anxiously await upperclassmen status. Although their student life at Malabar has just begun, they have proven themselves in many areas. With such a beginning, sophomores are already on their way.

Senior Class Play

This November, under the direction of Mr. Ray Gerrell, the Senior Class of Malabar presented Noel Coward's "Harvey."

Don Brody played the lead as Elwood P. Dowd, portraying an eccentric, middle-aged man who insists his best friend is a six foot rabbit.

Also featured in leading roles were: Sue Shepherd as Elwood's sister and Debbie Bowen as the niece of Elwood.

Director: Mr. Gerrell

Girls Chosen: Debbie Hardesty and Peggy Sauter.

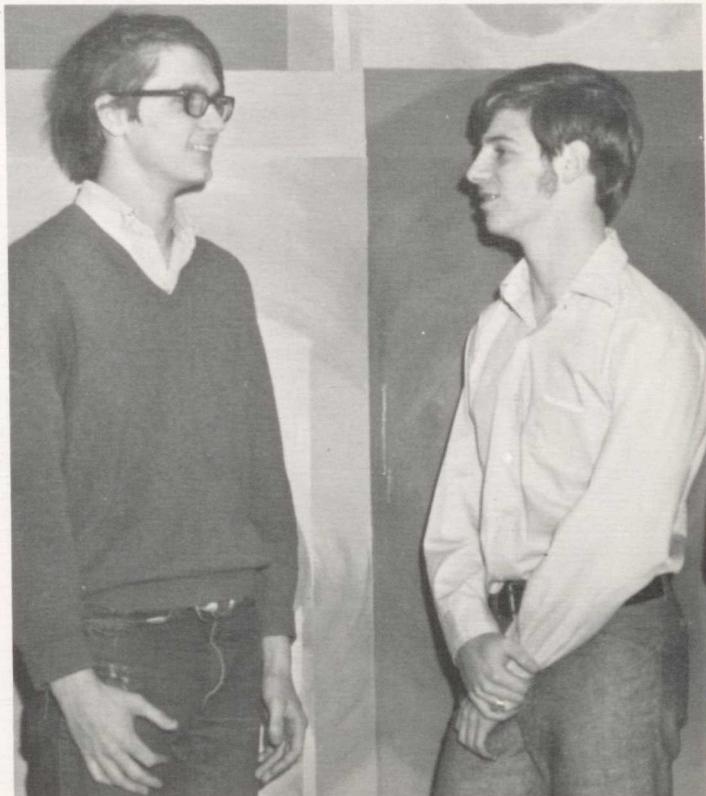

Participants: Jay Schmidt, Debbie Hardesty and Mark Hamilton.

Boys' and Girls' State

During the summer three seniors represented Mala-bar at Boys' and Girls' State. Girls' State was held at Capital University. The many speakers were an important part of the program, and the Federalist and Nationalist parties functioned as true political parties. Debbie Hardesty was elected Senator.

Boys' State took place at Ohio University where Mark Hamilton won the position of Assistant Fire Chief and where Jay Schmidt was elected Aid-to-the-Attorney-General. These mock governments gave greater understanding of political functions.

Alternates for Boys' State: Ed Larson and Bill Berno.

Exchange Student

Sue spoke to classes about differences in American and Australian life.

Sue and her Australian family, the Addisons.

Last summer Sue Shepherd participated in the AFS program as an exchange student in Australia. She attended Cheltenham Girls' High School with her host sister. Sue also spent time visiting various parts of the country and speaking to groups about life in America.

Football

Won 6 Lost 3 Tied 1

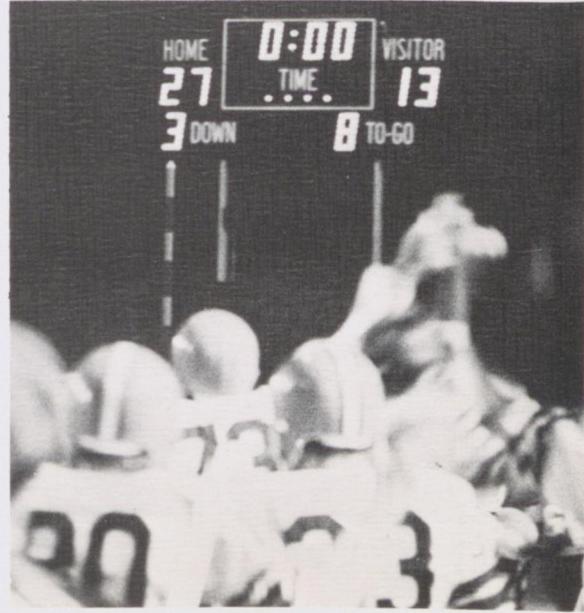

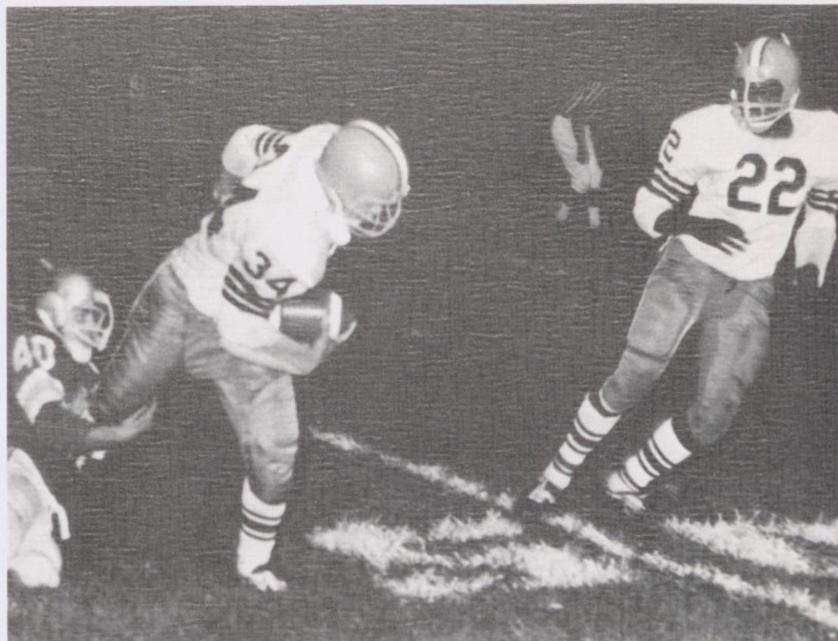

Malabar's football team enjoyed the benefits of hard work and determination as shown by its achievement of giving Malabar its first winning season in football. Other major factors in this year's season were the winning attitude and unification of the players and coaches.

The highlight of the season was almost a replay of last year. The Falcons, who came into the game as underdogs, showed their best performance of the season by tying Madison 14-14.

Five Falcons received first team honors in the Cardinal Conference: Pete Rincich, linebacker; Ted Sazdanoff, offensive tackle; Dick Belt, middle guard; Mark Hamilton, offensive half-back; and Mike Jones, defensive halfback. Jeff Ziegler, Bill McCormick and Asa Jenkins were given honorable mentions in the conference. Ziegler also received a second team rating in the district. McCormick, Rincich and Belt received honorable mention. Mike Jones, voted most valuable player this year, was also All District and Honorable Mention on the All-Ohio team.

Other outstanding players, selected by the team, were Dick Belt, Best Defensive Lineman; and Ted Sazdanoff, Best Offensive Lineman. There were two ties with Pete Rincich and Asa Jenkins sharing the award for Best Defensive Back, and Greg Loesch and Mark Hamilton receiving Best Offensive Back.

Reflecting . . .

. . . upon past homecomings we reflect upon Queen Melody and the victorious efforts of our football team. Melody Maisenbacher and her court, Donna Appel, Linda Jones, Pat Jones, and Heidi Ludwig, who were attired in velvet, were presented to the student body on the afternoon of October 16. The stage, which featured a mobile of birds, was simply, but elegantly decorated in black and silver. That evening Melody and her court witnessed our team's 34-13 victory over Coshocton. "The Smile" provided music for the after game dance.

Cross Country

Won - 3 Lost - 4

The Falcon Harriers finished the season with a third place position in the Cardinal Conference. This year they sent Rodger Loesch and Kim Colby to the district meet at Toledo, in which Loesch placed 18th and Colby placed 31st.

Coached by Joe Romano, this year's Harriers were led by third year letterman and captain, Kim Colby; and Rodger Loesch, who was voted most valuable. Rodney Loesch was awarded most improved Harrier this year.

Basketball

Thirteen Wins and Five Losses

Malabar's basketball team is on its way to its best season yet. Led by graduating lettermen Jay Schmidt, Tom Baker, Mark Stull, and Greg Gerich, the team has at present a 13-5 overall and a 8-4 conference record. This year's team was inspired by Jay Schmidt's great ability and consistency. His overall point average, second in the Cardinal Conference, is 20.2 points per game with a 364 point total. Schmidt's fine performance was supported by the equally good performance of junior Robert Crawford who averaged 13.3 points per game for a total of 290 points and complemented this with 222 rebounds. Another good job was done by junior Mike McGuire with a 57% foul goal average. The average team score was 73.6 points per game for a total of 1324 points. The Falcons' prospects going into the tournament seem quite good.

Wrestling

Eight Wins and Three Losses

Superb describes the performance of the Falcon Grapplers this year who had their greatest season ever. Leading the team with a 13-0 record was heavyweight wrestler Chuck Davis, who had ten pins. Both Chuck and Jack Kampf were first in the Cardinal Conference meet. Shane O'Hara, who had the most takedowns, finished second in the meet. Vic Olivieri, another fine wrestler, finished third. The team, which had an 8-3 record, will lose eight senior lettermen this year.

Swimming

Ten Wins and Three Losses

The Mighty Malabar Mermen ended up with another winning season this year. For the past three years, Malabar Swimmers had kept up a winning streak of 27 straight victories, which ended with their defeat by Massilon this year.

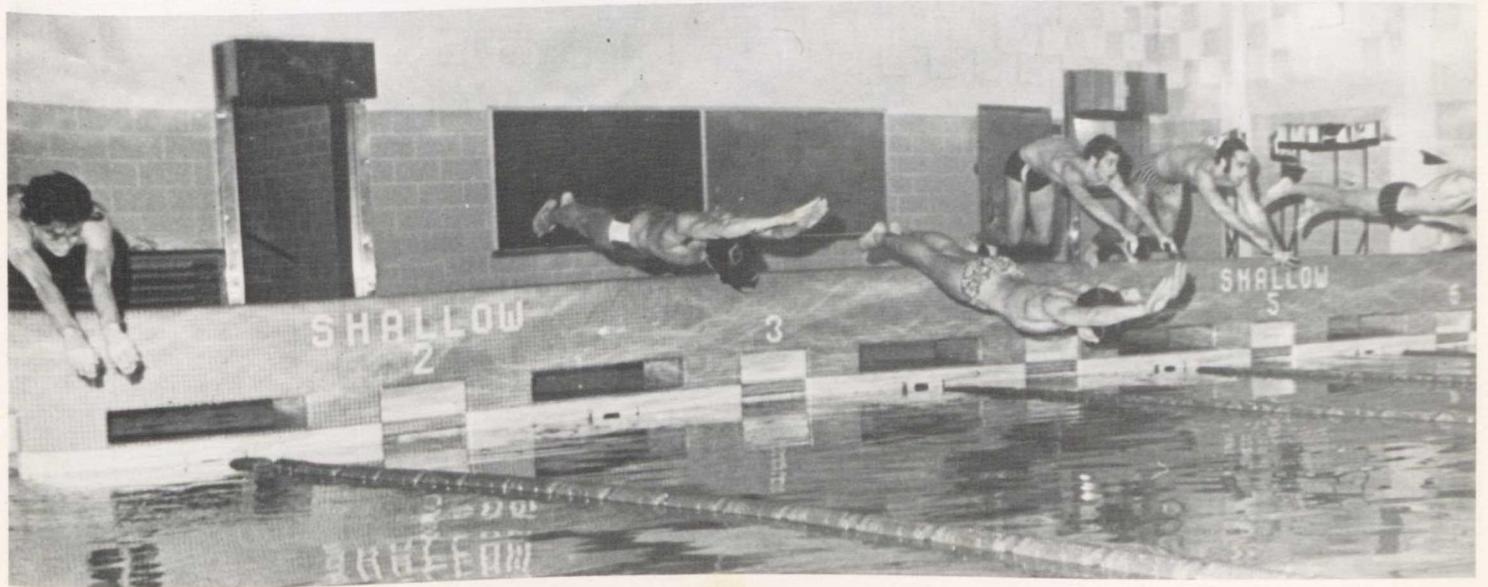

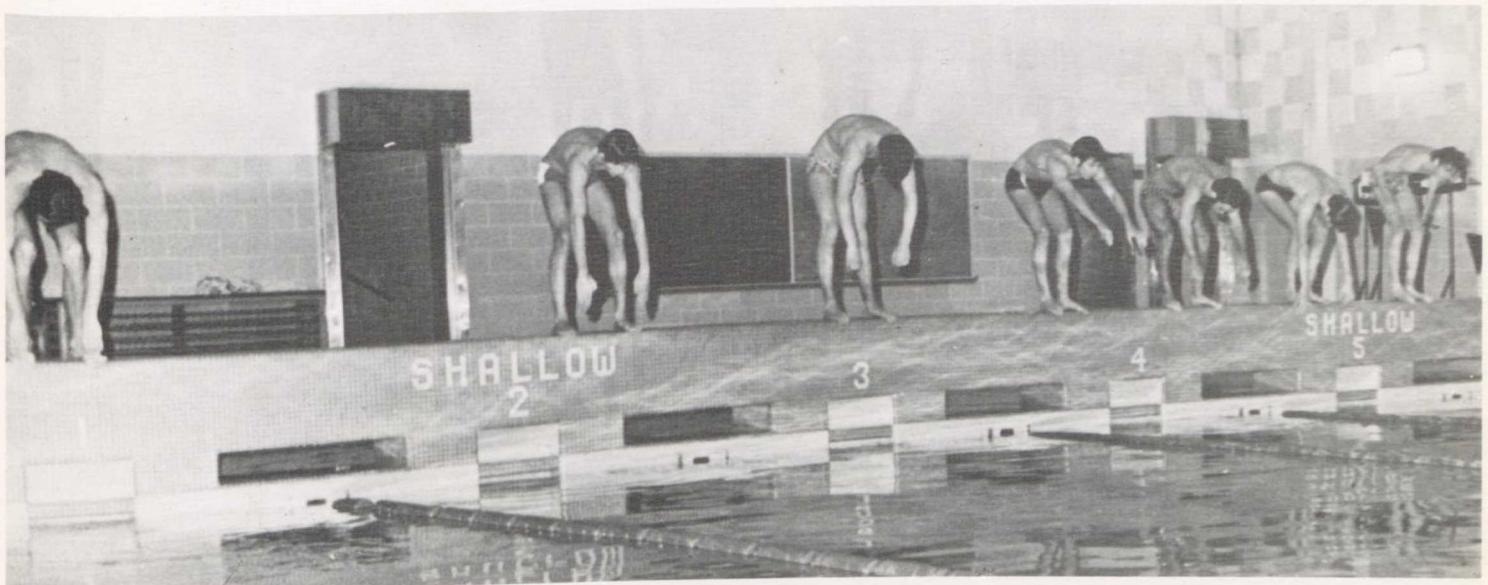

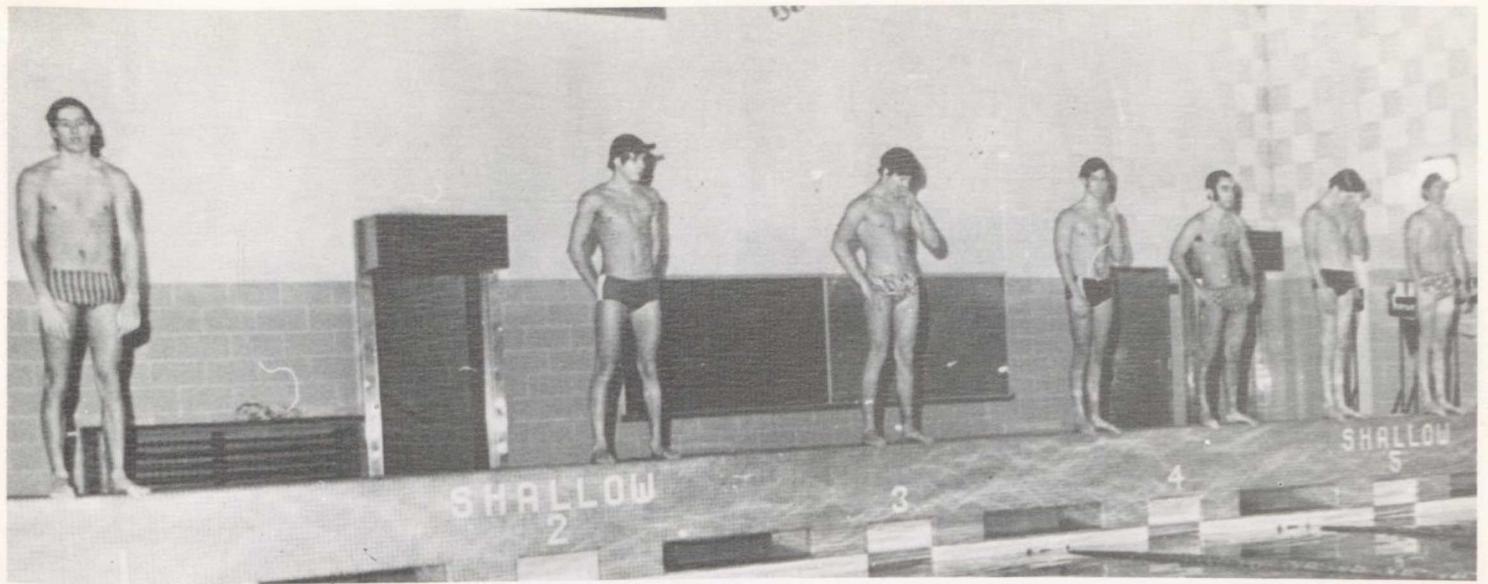

After ending the season of dual meets with a 10-3 record, the Falcon team sent the greatest 400 free-style relay team Malabar has ever had to the State Meet. Bob Seibert also went to State for the individual 200 free style.

Although their long winning streak was broken, our swimmers put up a good fight. Seniors leaving the team are Bill Berno, Bruce Burns, Kim Colby, Greg Loesch, Merrill Tawse, Tom Freiheit, Tyson Tuttle, and Jerry Yubero. These boys have only known three defeats in their three years of swimming. Other outstanding performers were juniors Andy Shiplet, diver, with a 9-4 record, Bob Seibert, free-styler, and sophomore Chip Finefrock who specialized in the 100 yard backstroke. Team Captain Bruce Burns was a consistent performer in freestyle events.

Track

The track team, with many returning lettermen, will be looking forward to another fine season this year.
